

Make a statement with joolpool.com

Looking for that individual piece of jewellery can be difficult especially when you're looking for something that is unique, different and reflects the receiver's personality and taste. With joolpool.com this is exactly what you get, stunning jewellery, with quality and style at its heart.

Sourcing out the very best designs, using only the highest quality of materials including yellow and white gold, along with sterling silver, many of their collections are distinctive in appearance and offer something different to the usual offerings on the High Street. Plus, many of the ranges also include ethically produced and Fair Trade jewellery, such as the Ethical Gold Range, with gold plated and brass chains, as well as gorgeous gemstone bracelets, necklaces and matching sets, all sourced from Sedex member suppliers.

Established in 1996, co-founder, Vicky Hatia has always had her feet firmly in the fashion world, with ten years experience as a top fashion buyer, as well as continuing to lecture at the London College of Fashion and many other universities within the capital. Never out of touch with trends, Vicky ensures that joolpool oozes fashion, incorporating the latest trends, as well as reflecting quality and ethics.

joolpool has been featured in Vogue's 'Most Desired Dot Com' and has firmly made its mark within the industry. Evidence of this shines through in all their collections, with inspired designs that include semi-precious gemstone and superb sterling silver; creating beautiful necklaces, rings, pendants, and bracelets. joolpool can also offer the choice of handmade pieces, with their joolpool London range, which is exclusively designed and handmade in the UK, taking inspiration from the individuality and free-spirited lifestyle that is the London mindset.
